CYCLING ITINERARY

Cycling route: 59km (37 miles)

Cycling in: South Eastern Ontario,
Prince Edward County

Number of days cycling: 1 or 2

Recommended number of nights stay: 2

Experience rating:
easy to moderate

This cycling route provides a great tour of Prince Edward County, showcasing the scenic views, quiet countryside, and culinary and arts trails. It can easily be done in any direction, with a start and end in Picton, Bloomfield or Wellington.

A popular summer destination, Prince Edward County is a great place to cycle with short distances between towns that have everything you need. The route out of Picton will take you on the adeptly named Ridge Road offering crowning views towards Lake Ontario. From the quaint village of Bloomfield continue along the Loyalist Parkway, enjoying a wide paved shoulder to the village of Wellington. If you need to cool down, stop at Wellington Beach before cruising into wine country.

With plenty of worthy stops en route, make sure you have extra time to take in a few of the shops, cafes, wineries and art galleries to really get a feel for “County” living.

Consider adding the Sandbanks Cycling Itinerary to your visit to Prince Edward County and enjoy another day of cycling nearby.

Logistics

Distance

59km (37 miles)

Roads

- Highway 33 - Loyalist Parkway, mostly paved shoulders, some wider than others
- Smaller secondary roads quieter
- Climbs - few rolling hills - mostly flat
- Suitable for all types of bicycles

Cautions and Notes

- Take care riding along larger roads, such as Highway 33 and 62. Parts of Highway 33 and all of Highway 62 do not have paved shoulders. With the exceptions of County Road 1 and Highway 49, road cycling in Prince Edward County is excellent.
- Vehicle traffic can be heavy on summer weekends and holidays, especially in areas surrounding Sandbanks Provincial Park.
- Potential for strong headwinds.

Parking & Transportation

- Mary Street and King Street municipal parking lots, Picton
- Bloomfield Main Street
- Wellington Municipal Parking lot on Belleville Street
- VIA Rail Bike Train service stops at Belleville
